LAS VEGAS (June 29, 2015) – Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino announced today the final phase of its resort-wide transformation with the upcoming redesign of more than 3,000 guest rooms and suites.

Created by the MGM Resorts

International Design Group, each of the designs for the new rooms and suites will feature vibrant colors and bold statement pieces, exuding a confident and inviting atmosphere.

Reservations for select remodeled rooms are now available for stays beginning July 2015 and can be booked by calling 877-632-7000 or visiting mandalaybay.com.

“Mandalay Bay has undergone a remarkable evolution over the last few years,” said Chuck Bowling, president and COO of Mandalay Bay. “These new rooms and suites will round out a dynamic resort experience complete with world-class dining, high-energy entertainment and nightlife and premier meeting and convention space.”

Featuring bright, natural designs and color palettes with modern furnishings, the new rooms will offer comfortable spaces ideal for guests in search of a retreat during their stay. Splashes of texture and color have been carefully integrated into lush fabrics and warm curtain patterns to create a bright and airy atmosphere.

Resort Collection

The Resort King will feature a refreshing cobalt and white color scheme where the softness of the curtains will accentuate the curves of the carpet. The Resort Queen rooms will welcome guests with either a warm ruby and latte combination or rich lavender and mocha. Creating a bold centerpiece for the room, each bed is framed by a vibrant mural onyx-inspired wall. All rooms will feature a fully stocked minibar, Keurig coffee machine and a flat-screen HD TV, openly displayed and visible throughout the room.

For guests looking to stay connected, the new Resort Collection rooms will feature a thoughtfully designed work area with a spacious glass desk, modern seating and task lighting. Functional details include an electrical outlet on each lamp for easy bedside and tableside recharging. The experience is highlighted by sweeping views of the mountains, the city skyline or Mandalay Bay's famed 11-acre pool and beach oasis.

Suite Collection

For guests seeking additional space, the Suite Collection offers one- and two-bedroom suites ideal for entertaining friends or meeting with co-workers. Featuring rich jewel tone fabrics accented by natural wood and stone, each suite will feature multiple seating and dining areas. The media and living area will include a large table for guests to gather and socialize, whether for business or pleasure.

Luxury Collection

Guests seeking the ultimate indulgence can select from the many glamorous one- to four-bedroom suites in the Luxury Collection. Featuring newly designed décor complemented by well-appointed amenities such as floor-to-ceiling windows and dining and bar areas, these suites will ensure that each guest's stay feels like a well-deserved escape.

The approximately $100 million remodel includes more than 3,000 guest rooms and suites. The project is expected to be completed by spring 2016.
